Amandebele ka Ndzundza Chief MP Mahlangu to hold the Annual General Meeting (AGM) for his traditional community.

Amandebele ka Ndzundza Traditional Council (ABLTC) will host its Annual General Meeting (AGM) on Saturday, 12 May 2018 at Sokhulumi village in Bronkhorstspuit. The Traditional Council Leader Chief MP Mahlangu will use the meeting to brief the traditional community and give reports on how they used public funds for the past financial year 2017/18. He will also take this opportunity to highlight the achievements as well as shortcomings of the year under review.

MEC for Departments of Cooperative Governance and Traditional Affairs (COGTA) and Human Settlements, MEC Dikgang Uhuru Moiloa is expected to attend the meeting.

Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act 4 of 2003 and Gauteng Traditional Leadership and Governance Framework Act 4 of 2010, makes provision for traditional councils to hold an AGM once a year
